German Continuing

Learning a foreign language takes time and effort. Some people want to learn a foreign language for practical reasons, some aspirational, some intellectual and others sentimental, but whatever your reasons, having a clear idea of why you're learning a language can help to motivate you in your studies.

This course has been designed for students who have gained a basic understanding of the German language and wish to extend their knowledge beyond elementary written and conversational German.

- Describe the appearance of people
- Request favours and express opinions
- Seek and express appropriate emotions
- Discuss permission and obligation
- Carry out transactions in a post office or bank and
- Read and write short notes, messages and letters.

Assessment

This is not a certificate course and there is no formal assessment for this course. Due to the flexible nature of Adult Education classes, parts of the curriculum may be adapted to suit the needs of the class.
